Additional History

Below are some quotes from Martin Luther King's 'I have a dream' speech. What impact would his words have had on the public?

“I say to you today, my friends, that in spite of the difficulties and frustrations of the moment, I still have a dream.”

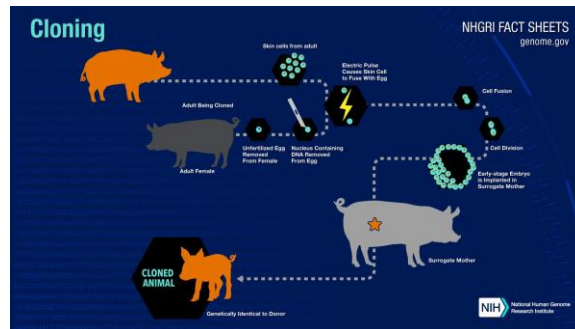

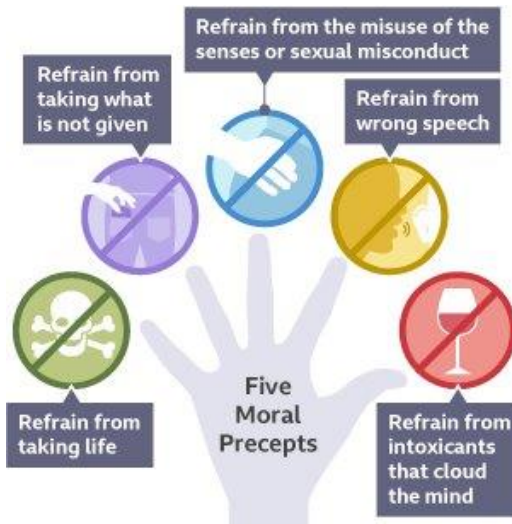

“Now is the time to rise from the dark and desolate valley of segregation to the sunlit path of racial justice.”

“We will not be satisfied until justice rolls down like waters and righteousness like a mighty stream.”

“I have a dream that my four little children will one day live in a nation where they will not be judged by the color of their skin but by the content of their character.”

“Let us not seek to satisfy our thirst for freedom by drinking from the cup of bitterness and hatred.”
