

Week 1:

History
Archduke Franz Ferdinand	The heir to the Austro-Hungarian throne in 1914.
Gavrilo Princip	The Serbian Nationalist who assassinated Archduke Franz Ferdinand.
nationalist	A person who feels strong loyalty or devotion towards their country/nation. They may feel that their country/nation is superior to others.

Religious Studies
freedom	Being free to choose your actions.
individual liberty	One of the five British Values which ensures the freedom to make decisions.
Human Rights Act 1998	The rights and freedoms that everyone in the UK is entitled to.

Geography
biome	A large ecosystem.
permafrost	A permanent frozen layer of ice beneath the soil.
tundra	A cold biome with mainly flat land and very little vegetation.

Week 2:

History
short-term	Something which happens over a short period of time.
tension	Strain.
trigger	A small movement that sets off a bigger chain of events.

Religious Studies
determinism	The belief that all our actions are determined by other factors.
hard determinism	The belief that determinism and free will are incompatible.
soft determinism	The belief that determinism and free will are compatible.

Geography
landscape	An area of Earth's surface that is visible from one place.
landform	An individual feature in a landscape, e.g. mountain, hill, river, beach.
fieldwork	Gathering information to answer a geographical question.

Extension QR Codes - Read the BBC bitesize new knowledge page, watch the video, and complete the self quiz

QR code (History)

QR code (RS)

Week 3:

Week 4:

History
cause	An event which leads to something else happening.
historiography	The study of the writing of history.
long-term	Something which happens over a long period of time.

Religious Studies
compatible	To exist together without conflict.
incompatible	Unable to exist together without conflict.
harm principle	The rule that our free will should not harm others.

Geography
observation	Closely (watching) something then noting down or drawing what you have seen.
sustainable	Meeting the needs of the present without harming the ability to meet the needs of future generations.
tourism	When people visit places.

History
conscription	The process of forcing someone to work as part of group, usually the military.
enlist	To sign up for something.
propaganda	Political messages designed to persuade people.

Religious Studies
predestination	The belief that God has already determined the future.
Al-Qadr	The Islamic belief that God has power over our predestination.
original sin	The sin of Adam and Eve eating from the Forbidden Tree.

Geography
Ordnance Survey map	A type of map that shows detailed characteristics of a place.
secondary data	Data collected by somebody else.
primary data	Data you have collected yourself.

Extension QR Codes - Read the BBC bitesize new knowledge page, watch the video, and complete the self quiz

QR code (Geography)

The fieldwork process

QR code (History)

Week 5:

History
pals Battalions	Groups of men from the same areas who fought together in the First World War.
trench	Deep narrow hole that is dug into the ground.
western front	Area where most of the fighting took place along the French and Belgian border.

Religious Studies
principle	A rule, belief, or idea that guides you.
moral responsibility	Being blamed or praised for your actions.
utilitarianism	The belief that actions should be done because of the greater good.

Geography
evidence	Facts or information to support your point.
national park	An area protected by the government.
record	Information that is referred back to later.

Week 6:

History
Battle of the Somme	Largest army offensive in the British Army’s history.
offensive	An attacking military campaign.
stalemate	A situation where two opposing sides cannot make action or progress.

Religious Studies
neuroscience	The study of the brain and the nervous system.
amygdala	A part of the brain responsible for processing emotions.
nature vs nurture	A debate on what influences our actions more: nature (our genetics) or nurture (our environment).

Geography
evaluate	To make a judgement based on evidence.
fieldwork report	An extended piece of writing to answer your fieldwork enquiry.
land use survey	Away of recording how the land is used, usually on a map that outlines the buildings and other features.

Extension QR Codes - Read the BBC bitesize new knowledge page, watch the video, and complete the self quiz

QR code (RS)

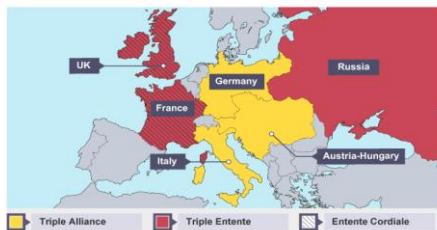

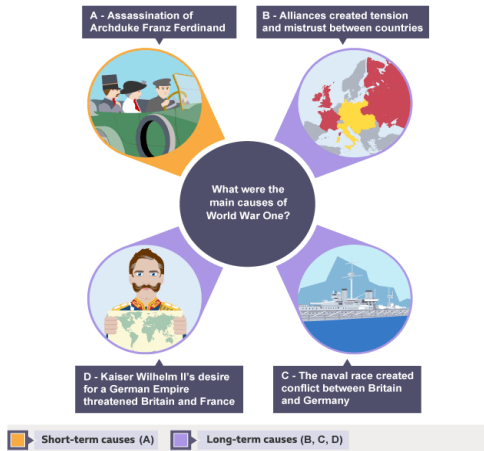

QR code (Geography)

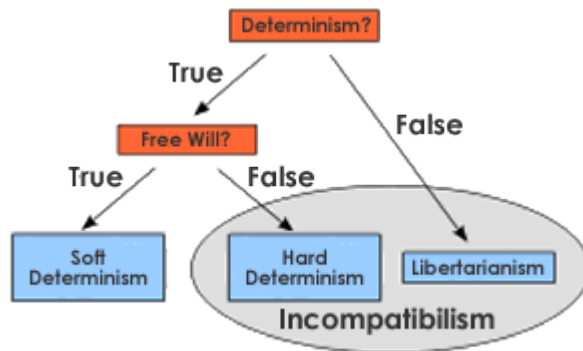

Fieldwork skills

Additional History

Additional Religious Studies

Qadr (Predestination) The Sixth Article of Faith in Islam

- 01: Allah is the All-Knowing, nothing is like Him
- 02: Qadr has four different aspects to it
- 03: Allah's knowledge does not negate free will
- 04: It is up to us to ensure we do good, not evil
- 05: Nothing can happen without Allah's permission
- 06: Qadr is not an excuse for committing sins

Nature vs. Nurture Debate

Nature:

Our genetics determine our behavior. Our personality traits and abilities are in our "nature."

Nurture:

Our environment, upbringing, and life experiences determine our behavior. We are "nurtured" to behave in certain ways.

Additional Geography

Logging onto Google Earth at home.

Search term: Google Earth.

You can download the App or use the web version.

Use the toggles to explore landscapes at different scales.

Search any location around the world. How are their physical and human characteristics similar or different to ours?

Photo Annotation

Label current and historic photos to show how the local area has changed over time.

Field Sketch

A simple drawing to capture the most important geographical features of a site.

Land Use Survey

Using a base map to code how land is used at each site.

Using the help above, how could you conduct your own primary research?
